EASLEY REAPPOINTS GORDON TO ROWAN-CABARRUS COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Mary A. Gordon of Charlotte to the Rowan-Cabarrus Community College Board of Trustees.

Gordon currently serves as the plant director for the Cabarrus Manufacturing Center, Phillip Morris U.S.A. She has worked with Phillip Morris U.S.A. since 1987. Aside from her previous membership on the Rowan-Cabarrus Community College Board of Trustees, she is currently a member of the Envision Cabarrus Steering Committee. Gordon received a bachelor's degree from Spelman College, a bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering from the Georgia Institute of Technology, and a Master's of Business Administration from Virginia Commonwealth University.

The Rowan-Cabarrus Community College Board of Trustees has thirteen members who serve four-year terms. The main duties of the board are to elect a president to the institution; to employ all other personnel to the community college; to purchase land which is necessary for the operation of the college; to apply the standards for admission and graduation of the students of the institution; to receive and accept donations given to the community college; and to provide all or part of the instructional services for the institution.
